Day 1 ~ Arrival ~ Bologna

As you exit baggage claim at the airport in Bologna, you will be welcomed to Italy by Art historian Dr. Lorenzo Bonoldi. A private coach awaits to take you to a splendid sixteenth-century palazzo in the heart of Ferrara.

Welcome dinner with Karen Essex. She will introduce the tour and give you some background on her best selling novel Leonardo's Swans and the two formidable princesses that inspired it, Isabella and Beatrice d'Este.

Overnight in Ferrara

Day 2 ~ Ferrara ~ UNESCO World Heritage

Spend a leisurely morning recovering from your flight. The birthplace of the Este sisters, and the jewel of the Renaissance of Ferrara is where our story begins.

Lunch in Palazzo dei Diamanti, built by Isabella and Beatrice's father, the visionary Duke Ercole d'Este; then we'll take a walk to Castello Estense, the private home of Isabella & Beatrice during their childhood.

Overnight in Ferrara

Day 3 ~ Ferrara ~ City Walking Tour

The genuine masterpiece of Ferrara is the city itself – half medieval and half Renaissance – meticulously planned by the mastermind Duke Ercole to reflect a new era of architectural wonder, earning Ferrara the title of Italy's first "modern city." To quote Leonardo's Swans, it was "a land of fairytales and miracles." To this day, its captivating ambience is best explored on foot or by bicycle.

Visit the Palazzo Schifanoia, Palazzo Giulio d'Este, Palazzo Costabili, and end at The Convent of Corpus Domini, a spiritual retreat for the Duchess and her final resting place.

Overnight in Ferrara

Day 4 ~ Ferrara ~ Mantua ~ Palazzo Te

Hotel check out and transfer to Mantua, The 2016 Capital of Italian Culture and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Isabella d'Este married into the powerful Gonzaga family, rulers of Mantua during the Renaissance. Their support of art, culture, and music as well as their military strength made Mantua one of the most important Italian city-states, and with the alliance of the Este, it flowered into a gem of the Renaissance.

The Palazzo Te is the decadent pleasure palace of the Dukes of Mantua, where they escaped the city to ride, hunt—and have secret assignations. Designed, built, and decorated by Giulio Romano, the star pupil of Raphael, for the leisure time of Federico Gonzaga, the palace's intimate, erotic frescoes will delight and amaze you.

Overnight in Mantua

Day 5 ~ Mantua ~ Ducal Palace

From 1490 to 1519, Marchesa Isabella and her husband, Marquess Francesco II Gonzaga, lived at the center of Italy's complex political landscape while also patronizing the greatest artists of the time. Hailed by Correggio as "The First Lady of the Renaissance," Isabella was muse to many but vainly vied for the attention of Leonardo da Vinci who was under the patronage of her sister Beatrice, Duchess of Milan.

Visit the Ducal Palace, home and headquarters of the Gonzaga family for almost four centuries (1328 to 1707), displaying artistic works of Mantegna, Pisanello, and Rubens, as well as precious tapestries designed by Raphael. We will have special access to Isabella's Studiolo, which held her spectacular collection, her Marriage Chamber, and Meditation Grotto.

Overnight in Mantua

Day 6 ~ Franciacorta ~ Wine Tasting

Spend the day like Renaissance nobility, visiting beautiful villages, wineries, and gardens on the hillside of Lake Garda and enjoy dining and tastings in the Franciacorta, one of Italy's superb regions for sparkling wine.

Overnight in Mantua

Lunch in the Vineyard of Leonardo, a gift presented to the artist for his service by “Il Moro” Sforza.

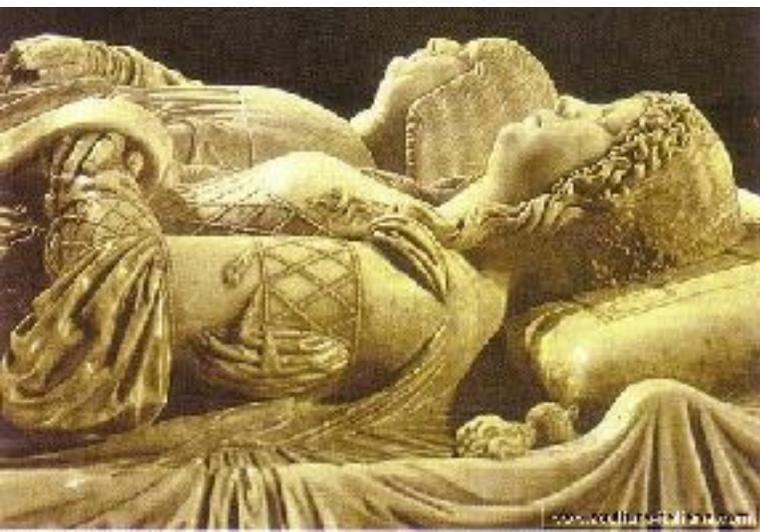

Overnight in Milan

Day 10 ~ Pavia

Today, we’re off to the peaceful countryside of Pavia to marvel at the marble cenotaph portraying Ludovico and Beatrice, the site of a moving solo conversation in Leonardo’s Swans between Isabella and the cold marble form of her dead sister, Beatrice. This funeral monument, once in Milan, is now located in the stunning Certosa of Pavia, the shrine of the devotion of the Visconti and Sforza families.

Overnight in Milan
